EDITORS note

As I sit here waiting for yet another home delivered dinner to arrive I'm left with the challenge of fighting off my hunger pains and delivering you with a good excuse for an Editors Note. What's the point? I'm too hungry to even think about anything else but food....Chinese, Mexican, Italian, Australian, Hamburgers, Chicken, Steak, Kebabs, Chocolate, Fish, Chips, Potato, Thai, Lebanese, Malaysian, Indonesian.....Oh god I'm so HUNGRY!! Where is my food????

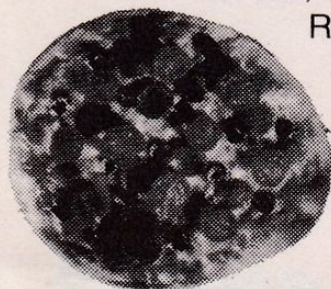

On the topic of another of my favourite things, television. What's with this show "Worlds Greatest Commercials", excellent show, funny and all but where in the hell are they getting all of these ads from? How is it that they have managed to find enough ads to make the show drag on for this long, if only I could think of enough interesting things to talk about to make this Editors Note drag on for long enough.

It seems that the press have bungled things once again, recently there was a story in some Newspaper (don't ask me which one) about a party at some Croation Club somewhere which the paper called a "fashion parade" and a "rave". At this so called "rave", which may I add no "ravers" had heard of, some guys showed up and started shooting the place up, nobody was killed thankfully and they think it was some sort of a gang thing. The thing that really ticks me off is that the Newspapers report it as being a rave and everyone that doesn't know a thing about raves is left to believe that this is what goes on at raves.....so if you're a parent and you've found this mag in your kids bag or bedroom or just picked it up from a shop because you were curious to find out what a magazine called Juicy Red Apple is all about, let me set you straight.....gangs DO NOT rock up to raves and start shooting at people....OK?

This is really sad but I have nothing else to say, I'm too hungry to think and my stomach is making these really loud noises so I'm losing my concentration and I don't really want to babble on for too long about nothing so let me just tell you what's in this issue because that's pretty hard to stuff up. I have my go with my latest invention "Sydney Situation" or as we like to call it "The Sydney Sitch", Roger Ramrod (sorry, Ramjet) has his go with his Canberra bit, Paul Barkley has his go with whatever he's going to do this issue, you can win some stuff in "Free Stuff", Rusher from Brisbane joins us once again, and find out what's happening in your neighbourhood in "Week in the life of".....and I'm sure there will be some more but my dinner's here now so I'm off!

Until next time

I'm a bit worried about my new creation, The Sydney Situation, it seems that while I sit here and carry on about what's going on in the Sydney Rave Scene I tend to forget to mention some things, and that could get me in a lot of trouble. I don't mean to forget anyone and I don't deliberately leave anyone out, I would like to be able to mention everything but there is just so much to say sometimes it gets a little hard to remember it all, I'm no Einstein

(and that's probably spelt wrong so I've proven my point).

Summer looks as if it's trying to break free but it's just these damn clouds that are getting in its way, are we headed for another rainy summer? I hope not, I mean I know the farmers need the rain for their crops to grow and be merry but I just don't think I could handle months of rain. Selfish aren't I? Well, this summer wet or not is going to be a good one and yes here I go again carrying on about the same old thing....but the good news is I have a few newbies to report this issue. One being that Happy Valley 4 has been confirmed for December YAY!!! It's said that it's going to be like a three day thing, keep your eye ball on the pages of JRA for more info. And a new recovery is rumoured to be starting shortly at Bondi Diggers, excellent place for a summer recovery, if you've been there you'd know, THE Michael Jackson and his wife Lisa Marie will be making a special appearance at Smurf Village 3 on December 2 and will be singing a duet called "I want to look exactly like you, ooh, ooh, ooh" (Ok, that was a joke, a lie, whatever you want to call it, but it's a good idea don't you think?).

SKOOL OF HARDKNOX

Happiest People in the World is back again and set for February (more dancing animals on stage hey?). And I'm sure there's more fandango 2 that I have forgotten to mention but whatever it is it's likely to be so huge, so excellent that you don't even need me to tell you about it.

Skool of Hardknox is coming up next weekend (Nov 4) so make sure you have your dancing shoes clean and ready for a beating. There's a whisper going around that "Fandango 2" will be on Nov 11 the last one, in case you weren't there, was a bit of an impromptu thang at the Hardcore that went off quite nicely.

Yet another event has joined the ranks of "Club New Years Eve" Insanity 2 is set to go on the most coveted night of the year and has now brought the count up to 4 (maybe five but we can't confirm whether the other one is true or if it's just a rumour) events for the welcoming of the New Year. I'm thinking I might just get on one of those Mystery Flights on New Years Eve and wherever the plane takes me, that's where I'll celebrate, on my own, with a big bottle of....something and that way I avoid having to make any kind of decision, and that is a very good thing. Anyway, I'm off.....

PERTH

After an absence of information on what's going on over here on the West Coast, I shall try to put together a little spiel on what's going on, but, on a regular basis (if I can get my shit together).

It seems that the recent fine weather has brought both the promoters and clubbers out onto the streets and into a hive of activity. We recently saw The DreamTeam come and go with The Thunderdome Party, which, some people have told me way one of the bigger raves Perth has seen for quite a while, approximately 2000+ ravers doin' it long and hard into the early hours of the next (bright!) day. The venue was certainly one of the better ones to be used in recent times. Held in an old Train depot/repair shop, it added an industrial type atmosphere to the whole event. It's also interesting that only small section - well smallish (it did fit 2000 people in it) was used, which would make any future events to be held there even more interesting if some of the other space is utilised.

In the "coming soon to a venue near you" department we have Double Dipped 2 with Paul Holden from Sydney town making a guest appearance, I've also been informed that Dr. Fernando, Slipmatt and a belated appearance from Angu$ are scheduled. It seems that due to venue troubles the recently advertised "OMEN" party was cancelled therefore temporarily grounding Angu$ from flying over and doing his hardcore thang.

Also, apparently there are plans for an open air party on a beach called Sky Hi, rumoured to be featuring Dr Motte from Germany as well as all the top locals. Also in Planning mode is the Fusion 2 rave for New Years Eve, I'll give you more details when I get 'em.

And finally, it looks as if someone is going to open a much needed Happy

Hardcore/Hardcore club on a weekly basis.

Called 34, opening night is Nov 10th at Heaven Nightclub with Paul Holden, Greg Packer and Myself alongside some of the better up and coming Happy Hardcore DJs crankin' it up from 10 o'clock onwards. That's about it for this week, more info next issue.

free stuff

Here we are again, it looks like Free Stuff could be back as a regular attraction. Last time we did the free stuff we got a lot of people who didn't win (I don't want to call them losers, that's not nice) getting a bit testy with us, we don't like it when people swear at us, or when we get hung up on, if you don't win try again next time, don't give us shit about it, and another thing the prizes DO go very quickly, two tapes can go in a matter of 5 seconds - literally, so don't get upset when you miss out by one minute it just 'aint our fault.

SCHOOL OF HARDKNOX - Courtesy of the teachers from the School of Hardknox we have two Hardknox packs to give away, each includes a single pass to School of Hardknox as well as a copy of Geoff Da Chefs tape Just Desserts all you have to do to win is tell us what Jade will be serving up in the morning (here's a hint, call the 0055 number). If you know the answer call 331 1983 at 6:00pm on Wednesday November 1.

SPELLBOUND 9 - The new tape from our own Spellbound is available now, because he's such a generous guy we have two copies of Spellbound 9 to give away. Call 331 1983 at 6:15pm Wednesday November 1.

"THE OFFICIAL THUNDERDOME APOLOGY"

Saturday 30th September 1995

The Promoters, Organisers, and Sponsors of THUNDERDOME The Party would like to inform all ticket and membership holders of the facts and truth behind the unfortunate mayhem on the long weekend!

Firstly Technoise touring, Rave Olympix 2000 and Hardcore United are very disappointed with the outcome of this event, but most importantly the way all our supporters and ticket holders were treated on the night by the police, the club security, the Telegraph Mirror, rival promoters and dodgy car park ravers trying to rob and harass our members!

We declare the following to be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so help us God! OK, here we go...

THUNDERDOME The Party had a choice of 3 venues! Venue 1: A NSW University Entertainment Centre/Hall. Venue 2: A warehouse in Botany/Alexandria Area. Venue 3: A choice of 2 nightclubs with a 24 hour license that could cater to all ages and capacity.

Venue 1 was our first and only choice to cater for such an event until we were notified that this hall had a 3am license days prior to the event. We were then told we could hold our event in this hall from 9pm - 3am and then move into the hall next door from 3am - 8am, which then got changed to no we could not use option 2 and we could use a private function room approximately 1 km off University Campus ie. University Hall 9pm-3am / Private Club 3am-9am.

Venue 2 was our back up venue initially in the Botany/Alexandria area of approximately 6000 sq meters including off road carparking 2 x large arenas and no neighbours to trouble, but due to South Sydneys council disapproval/banning dance parties in this area we did not want to be closed down completely!

Venue 3 was a choice of 2 inner city nightclubs that had a 24 hour license so we could run from 10pm-10am secondly so we could allow all ages to be present and it was inner city for ease to travel! Thirdly it could cater for over 1000 people and not have any sound problems. Our final choice was Saloon Tavern. We initially approached management to use the carpark under the Saloon but due to Council Approval this was impossible as past parties had upset neighbours in this area with the carpark use!

We were advised capacity for this venue was legally 1350 persons so on Saturday 30th we advised all ticket outlets at approximately 2pm to stop all ticket sales as it was a "Sold Out Event"! The Telegraph Mirror quoted we had sold over 3000 tickets with 2000 ticket holders being stranded outside which was a load of crap and even the club security spread vicious rumours about 3000 ticket sales just because our tickets were numbered from 1000 - 4000! We had admitted 2/3 of our ticket holders with 1/3 being stranded outside the venue with approximately 1500 car park ravers and gangster homies going bezerk on Parramatta Road playing chicken with the traffic!

The ticket scalper was not employed by our promotion/production team and took it upon himself to buy and sell tickets from ticket holders in queue in which he sold at an inflated price! The police were initially called to keep Parramatta Road clear for traffic as the club security kept everyone including our ticket holders on the footpath with no room to walk or passby which caused even more confusion! A rival promoter was insane enough to make bogus calls to police and thus extra police were called in and thus extra crowd control police including the Dog Squad and other squads were moved in to disperse the crowd totally! The club was told to close its doors so no one could get in or out for approximately 1 1/2 hours in which tear gas was used on persons outside the venue to get rid of them quickly. If anyone was hurt or injured please contact us care of JRA so we can issue these extreme measures taken by police to local council and police authorities and claim against the club!

Finally the promoters feel that you the ticket holders were subject to major problems on the night and we are very sorry and apologise for the inconvenience and have refunded 99% of unhappy ticket holders! We know that the 1000 persons inside had a "Thunder Experience" but were also shaken by the outside experience! We the production team had time and desire to plan another Thunderdome party before their trip back to Holland to make up for Saturday 30th but everyone was eager for a refund and not to show their support!

Thank You, The End.

Rave Olympix 2000 and Technoise Touring
